Death by Chocolate

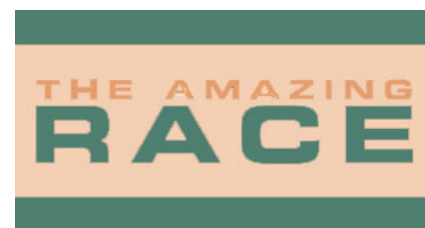

Teen Murder Mystery Party

Tuesday, May 28

3-5 pm

A famous chocolate manufacturer is found dead in his room. One--- or more of you-- is a murderer. As amateur detectives, your task is to discover who that killer is.

Attendees should prepare for an ensuing two hours of chaos, fun and plot twists as they embark on this journey. Register @ 628-3534

Saturday, June 29

Start time: 10 am

Teens & Adults

1. Team Formation: Create teams of 2-4 participants and work together to conquer the tasks and make your way back to the library.
2. Starting Point: The race begins at the library, where you'll receive your first clue. This clue will lead you to the next location in Greentown.
3. Challenges: At each location, you'll encounter a variety of tasks. Complete each task to receive the next clue.
4. Race Route: Follow the clues and race to different locations throughout Greentown. All participants must walk.
5. Finish Line: The ultimate goal is to make your way back to the library after completing all the tasks. The first three teams to cross the finish line will receive fantastic prizes and recognition for their achievement.

Registration: To participate in this exciting event register @ 628-3534
